Our pledge to you

We'll always be there to listen and believe what you tell us

We'll always treat you with respect and you can talk to us in complete confidence

We'll do everything we can to find those responsible

We'll push for the strongest possible sentences of those found guilty

What you can do

Report it should it ever happen to you

Speak up for other passengers if it happens to them

Keep the phone and text numbers should you ever need them

Spread the message to family friends and colleagues

We want you to feel confident on your journey and know exactly where to turn if you need help their experience to police

Project Guardian aims to reduce all sexual crime on the trains, tubes and buses.

Why? Nothing is more important than your safety

If you tell us:

- You will always be taken seriously, no matter what has happened
- Your evidence can help us identify and catch those responsible
- You'll be helping other passengers in future from becoming potential victims

What? We want to hear about anything that makes you uncomfortable, such as...

sexual touching groping flashing unwanted contact leering sexual comments indecent acts

How? Once you call or text us...

Report

We'll take details and assign an officer to you

Communicate

The officer will get in touch and keep you regularly updated

Investigate

We'll investigate using CCTV, witnesses and intelligence

Support We'll provide help to anyone who needs us
